

Tauranga 6-8 April 2018
Venue: Tauranga Racecourse, Tauranga

Programme

Friday 6 April 2018. 09:00 – Registration. Table open and attended continuously. 09:30 – 10:30 Research Committee meeting with branch Research Committee members 10:00 – 13:30 Jean and Elizabeth’s self-drive tour of interesting places 10:30 – 11:00 Morning tea 11:00 – 12:30 Branch delegates meeting 12:30 – 1:30 Lunch – delegates, research committee & helpers. 1:30-2:30 Research Snippets – all welcome: Jim Gilbert from Oregon, USA (sustainable home orcharding); Murray Redpath (hazels); Dr Vasanthe Rupasinghe, Nova Scotia, Canada (the emerging honeyberry industry in Canada) Dr Rebecca Martin, Senior Advisor, Conservation, and Myrtle Rust Research Programme Coordinator (outline of the current research on Myrtle Rust and its spread in NZ). 2:30-3:30 AGM 3:45-4:00 Official welcome and opening 4:00-4:30 Afternoon Tea 4:30-5:30 Keynote Speaker: Alistair Mowat. The changing role of tree crops in agriculture. Evening “free”. Enjoy your evening!	Saturday 7 April 2018 8:30 – 9.30 Registration 9:30 – 10:30 Dr David Pattemore: Insect pollinators. 10:30 – 11:00 Morning Tea 11:00 – 12:00 Dr Stephen Hoyte: Plant diseases. 12:30 Field Trips A, B & C depart 5:00 Field Trips return 6:00 – 6:45 Drinks and mingle 6:45 Dinner and presentations 8:00 Votes of thanks. Introduce Guest Speaker 8:05 Guest speaker
	Sunday 8 April 2018 8:30 – 9:00 Registration 9:00 – 10:00 Glyn Douglas: Plant nutrition and seasonal requirements. 10:00 – 10:30 Morning tea 10:30 – 11:30 Murray Redpath: The mānuka industry in Bay of Plenty. 11:30 – 11:45 Conference wrap-up: thank you and farewell. Nelson Branch presentation for 2019 Conference 12:00 Field Trips D, E & F depart 4.00- 4.30 Estimated return of field trips

Monday 10 April. After-conference self drive tours of Tree Crop members' properties are being arranged and will be advised at venue from Friday 6th.

End of conference. Thank you for coming and have a safe journey home.

See you in Nelson in 2019.